

Welder

Reports to: Welding Supervisor

Department: Materials

Division: Midstate Machine – Maine

Accountability

This position is primarily responsible for welding of materials within the facility.

Organizational Relationship

The Welder reports directly to the Welding Supervisor. The incumbent may have contact with several internal departments including, but not limited to: Manufacturing Manager, Manufacturing Supervisors, Engineering and Quality Control personnel

Principal Accountability

1. Lays out, fits and weld fabricated parts, castings, and forged components that join metal component products.
2. Selects equipment, plans layout, assembly and welding of components while applying knowledge of established welding techniques.
3. Bolts, clamps, and tack-welds parts to secure in position for welding.
4. Sets up equipment and welds parts using established techniques which conform to customer specifications and quality standards.
5. May specialize in using one or more welding processes and be designated for performing certain work.
6. May be designated to use different equipment to perform certain specified welding processes.
7. Read Construction DWGS and/or welding instructions.
8. Works in a safe conscientious manner.

9. Performs other duties or functions as requested by his immediate supervisor.

Qualifications

- Experience in Manual GTAW, SMAW and GMAW required.