

Controller

Reports to: Chief Financial Officer

Department: Finance

Division: Midstate Machine – Maine/Ohio

Job Summary:

High growth multi-site manufacturing (specializing in machining) firm in the aerospace and Power Generation sector seeking an experienced controller to join our team. This position will report directly to the CFO and will play a key role in financial analysis, cash flow forecasting, financial modeling, accounting reconciliations and will collaborate with executive leadership on a regular basis.

Responsibilities & Duties:

- Financial analysis and accountability with an emphasis on Operations partnership
- Collaboration on cash flow forecasting, funding strategies, and working capital modeling
- Month end closing activities including but not limited to accrual analysis, account reconciliations, and general financial analysis
- Strategic financial projects in support of growing the business
- Accounting subject matter expert with key audit interfacing
- Partnership with the operations on-site, driving value through collaboration and influencing stakeholders within manufacturing

Qualification & Skills:

- Bachelor's degree in Accounting, Finance or related field required (MBA preferred but not required)
- 5+ years' experience in a financial management position
- Manufacturing experience a must
- Strategic experience at the management level

Why Midstate Machine:

- Private Equity owned
- Unique and skilled manufacturing
- Small enough to be nimble and make a difference, ability to create real value
- Large enough to have influence